Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurFirst published in 1988, this fascinating book is a full discussion of Ganesha; His mantras, stories, avatars, and more. Recognized by religious Hindu's, Tibetans, Buddhists, practitioners of yoga, and even non-religious peoples the world over, Ganesha is truly universal. If you are a beginner seeking understanding or an advanced practitioner, this text has an enormous amount of teachings for all who seek practical answers to their life's questions. An excerpt for the book:"Lord Ganesha is the most fascinating, widely known aspect of God. Ganesha is the Son of God, or that which you call Christ in another story. He is the ocean of wisdom (vidya vaaridhi). He blesses us with illumined intellect (buddhi). He is the bestower of supernatural powers (siddhi). He is the embodiment of all sacred blessings (mangala murthi). He is all pervading spirit, all-powerful and radiant like millions of suns. Children worship Ganesha for success in their education. People pray to Lord Ganesha for the blessings of creative intelligence, success in their business and in their lives..."Ganesha is OMPresentation de l'diteurFirst published in 1988, this fascinating book is a full discussion of Ganesha; His mantras, stories, avatars, and more.
